RE: MILLENIUM BUILDING SERVICES PTY LTD

I recently engaged Adam Cooke and his team to do an extension, involving a suspended concrete slab construction, on my property at 55 Jarrahdale Drive, Elanora. After interviewing 3 other builders I chose Millenium based on their professional presentation and, while not the lowest quote, I felt they would be the most suitable for the job.

Adam's attention to detail and "can do" attitude resulted in a successful outcome. Adam kept me informed at all times and was very patient at answering questions and was always willing to work in with any changes that were requested. Renovating is challenging at the best of times but knowing Adam was on-hand to oversee every step of the project relieved a lot of the pressure and I was able to focus on my work.

I would not hesitate to recommend Adam & Millenium Building Services. If you require further information with regard to their quality of workmanship, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully,
